On the intercostal waterway head to green marker 1 at the beginning of Matlacha Pass and head North.

Keep the mangroves to the West approximately 200' off your port side. If you visually follow the mangroves that are on your West side as you head North you will see a group of about 10 houses on the shore. At the end of these houses is the entrance to our canal.

Bob and Annie's Boatyard is down this canal look for the Travel Lift and all the boats! You'll know it when you see it.
